SECRETARY BLAINE

Sees Baron Fava ; and Goes him One Better.

Other Interesting News From Our Regular Correspondent in Washington

Washington, D. C., April 4, 1891. Secretary Blaine has just shown that he is about the last man in the world to be stampeded by bluster, whether the blusterer be a loud-mouthed democratic editor indulging in threats of personal by arousing the national pride of his in Tueson. to further taxation. Had this far ween his advisers several days ago as it is now it might have prevented the government done by instructing its minister to the The huge excavation made by the late | United States to ask for his passports because the United States government declined to interfere with the state authorities of Louisiana, now engaged in investigating matters connected with the recent lynching of eleven members of the famous "Malia" society at New Orleans.

When Baron Fava, the late Italian Minister, called on Mr. Blaine to present his letter of recall, he after professing the greatest admiration and personal friendship for the Secretary, began an audacious and abusive harangue abuto the neglect of this government to take proper steps to satisfy the demands of Italy. He was quickly interrupted by sir Blaine and informed in polite but unmistakable language that he could not proceed further. He then very quietly withdrew and is still in Washington, though no longer minister.

The attitude of the president and the cabinet in dealing-with this bit of Italian buildozing is commended on all sides they have just gone quietly about their duties just as if nothing had occurred It was decided as soon as the matter was laid before the cabinet that our minister to Italy should not be recalled, unless there was something more tangible to base such action upon than the silly recall of the Italian minister to this country.

Nobody for a moment thinks that Italy ants to fight the United States she ouldn't if she was ever so anxious, for the best of reasons, she hasn't the money or credit necessary to make her credit necessary to make her C Houser, really powerful navy effective on this R & K tich side of the Atlantic. At first it was thought that the Italian government was only adopting this sensational meth-od of getting rid of its minister here, and many well informed people are still of that opinion, but Baron Fava told a personal friend, an Americanized Italian, that such was not the case, and that his government was only desirous of emphasizing its dissatisfaction with the United States government because it would not promise to pay an indemnity mesas of good grass, first-class schools, and to guarantee that the lynchers should be properly punished-two im he evulence wer

This childish action of the Italian conino county is a land that will sustain many hundred more people. No man need go hungry or want for work in Coconino county. Come now, shoulder rethis government. Mr. Blaine has been investigating eversince the lynching and will continue, without regard to anything Italy may see fit to do, until he is in possession of all the facts. Then he will decide. The importance of this question is not overlooked, but there is no occasion for any undue haste and if any serious complications were expected the president would certainly Lave with grand larceny, being arrested at announced the date for his departure to the Pacific coast, as he has done since the recall of the Italian minister. The president and party, which it is thought will not include any ladies, will leave here Wednesday April 15. It is not yet certain how many of the cabinet will be in the party, but Secretary Tracy will go, as he is suxious to inspect the Mare Island Navy Yard, the Union Iron Works at San Francisco, which is build-ing several vessels for the navy, and the new navy yard. Secretary Rusk will
